Bnai Keshet

A vibrant Reconstructionist congregation that values both the unique individual backgrounds and beliefs of its diverse members and our shared historical traditions. We celebrate our role as participants in the evolution of Judaism by engaging our tradition thoughtfully, so it remains meaningful and relevant to each of us. In this spirit, we are committed to lifelong education, to hesed (caring), to tik-kun olam (repairing the world), and to sharing important life events. We are an informal and respectful community moved by prayer, fired by lively discussion, enlivened by laughter and song. <https://www.bnaikeshet.org>; email at bnaikeshet@bnaikeshet.org.

Christ Church Montclair, 68 Church St. / 973-783-1010

Founded in 1986 when Pastors David and Marlinda joined hearts with six other adults, Christ Church has grown exponentially year after year. Today Christ Church is home to 9,000 members, representing approximately 70 different nationalities! We offer several weekend worship experiences in two physical locations. Our east campus is located in Montclair at Church Street & Trinity Place and our West Campus is located in the Township of Rockaway at 140 Green Pond Road. Our online campus can be found at ChristChurchUSA.org/online. Our mission is to unite people to God and people to people. www.ChristChurchUSA.org

Congregation Shomrei Emunah

The spiritual home of a warm and inviting community of Jews in and around Montclair.

With pride in our congregation's long and proud history, we strive to build a contemporary community that welcomes individuals, couples and families of diverse backgrounds and orientations to join, thrive with us.

Shomrei weaves us all together in an intimate environment as we observe an egalitarian, vibrant Judaism, balancing openness and traditional practice in a variety of ways; renew and sustain our heritage through learning and ritual; share the cycles of life, and seek to nurture one another, our neighbors, Israel, and the world at large with our energy, time, and acts of loving kindness. We aspire to be a beacon of social consciousness and action.

First Church Christ, Scientist and Reading Rooms

Bookstores and reading centers for the exploration of spirituality, prayer and healing. We are a resource for anyone open to his or her quest for spiritual understanding and are open to people of all faiths, backgrounds and ways of life.

We are locally maintained by individuals who actively study and practice Christian Science and are members of the Christian Science Church at 8 Hillside Ave. in Montclair. Both the Reading Rooms and Churches are dedicated to helping visitors discover the peace, comfort and spiritual solutions available to all from God.

Today, there are more than 1500 Reading Rooms worldwide, and they continue to serve local communities. Many Reading Rooms also provide online access to Christian Science web resources.

First Congregational Church of Montclair is a progressive, multi-racial, open and affirming congregation of the United Church of Christ. We welcome people of all ages and identities to grow spiritually in a safe and engaging community. Inspired by God's love, we bring peace, healing and justice to the world by serving our neighbors and each other. We partner with many area social service organizations including Garden State Equality, MESH, Montclair Sanctuary Alliance and Family Promise of Essex County. We are also the home of MMO Programs Daycare and Pre-school. (mmoprograms.org). Our Pastoral Staff is led by Rev. Ann Ralosky (revann@fccmtc.org) and Rev. John Rogers (John.Rogers28@gmail.com) who can be reached at 973-744-4856, or through our website www.fccmontclair.org.

Rising Mt. Zion Baptist Church

A community-focused church located at 27 Monroe Place in Montclair. Food and clothing giveaways, educational programs, community outreach events, and other initiatives aim to demonstrate Christian love through service to others. Collaborations include its partnership with Montclair Emergency Services for Hope to provide prepared meals and provisions to those in need. The church's mission is "to build up believers of Christ in the most holy faith and to equip them for the work of the ministry of teaching, preaching, and practicing the word of God." The church has been an integral part of the local community since it was established in 1938. Rev. Elizabeth Campbell is pastor. Visit @RMZBChurch on Facebook, or the church's website: rmzchurch.org; or call 973-744-3012

The Salvation Army

The Salvation Army, located at 13 Trinity Place, provides services to the homeless and homeless prevention services to individuals and families. We operate Cornerstone Emergency Shelter, a 23-bed shelter in Montclair serving individuals and families not eligible for services through the Division of Family and Benefits. Monday through Friday we are open from 9:00 am – 4:00 pm providing case management, drop-in services and financial assistance for rent and utilities. For an appointment call 973-744-3312 and leave a message, your call will be returned. Monday – Wednesday at 11:30 am, we serve a hot meal, and provide those guests without addresses a place to eat inside at our drop-in center. Take away meals are available for members of the community who need a meal.

St. James Church

At the heart of Upper Montclair, worshiping in the Episcopal tradition St. James Church is an inclusive community focused on faith, family and fellowship, which seeks to

- Nurture spirituality through community and Christian education
- Grow and support our diverse membership through fellowship and outreach
- Serve the needs of Montclair and beyond through God's love.

Gracious God, strengthen in us two values that we hold central as a Christian Community. These values are inspired by Jesus' two great commandments. First, we love God or something greater than ourselves with all our hearts and mind, and second we commit to loving our neighbor as we love ourselves. There is no boundary or condition to our love and commitment to God or to our neighbor, no matter who they may be. All are welcome in this place. 581 Valley Road / 973-744-0270

St. John's

St. John's is an Episcopal church, which means we are a Christian church that is neither Protestant nor Catholic, but something in-between. In the Episcopal church we call this the "via media," the middle way. In the Episcopal church we also take the Bible too seriously to take it literally. Regardless, we welcome everyone, as expressed in our vision statement: "Many Paths, One Journey." Or as Jesus said, "And I, when I am lifted up, will draw all people to me." To know more about St. John's:

St. Mark's United Methodist Church

"The Mark" (as we affectionately call ourselves) was called into existence, through the power of the Holy Spirit, in 1880. Our congregation was born out of a spirit of innovation and a risk-taking mindset. With a legacy as trailblazers within our community, we embrace those same sentiments and characteristics as we discern God's call to be active and relevant in an ever-changing world. Our mission is to make disciples of Jesus Christ. The Reverend Leslie Houseworth Fields is our senior pastor. Invite your family and friends to worship with us on Sunday premiering at 10 a.m. on Facebook, YouTube, IGTV themarkmtc.freeonlinechurch.com/live.

The Union Baptist Church of Montclair

Located at 12-14 Midland Ave., The Union Baptist Church of Montclair began in February 1887, when thirty local residents, all members of the Baptist faith, formed their own religious organization and at that time named themselves the "Baptist Mission." Union Baptist Church was the first Black Baptist church in Montclair. UBC strives to be a place where all are welcome in the sharing of Jesus Christ as Lord; where the power of God is demonstrated in worship and discipleship, where fellowship, health, healing and empowerment are brought about through prayer and service as led by the Holy Spirit. We seek transformation as we lift up Jesus Christ who empowers all to live transformed lives. Reverend Dr. Campbell B. Singleton, III is the ninth senior pastor.

Consumers League of New Jersey

Consumers League of New Jersey fights for the right of consumers to safe products, fair contracts and legislation. CLNJ opposes legislation which legalizes unfair practices such as unlimited interest in payday loans and rent to own deals.

CLNJ was founded in 1900, influenced by the ideas of the Progressive Era. The archives of CLNJ's early history are preserved at Rutgers University Library, New Brunswick.

The modern Consumers League has been involved in struggles for fair credit and mortgage laws, and car safety. CLNJ has opposed industry lobbying to weaken strong consumer protection laws, such as the N.J. Consumer Fraud Act.

The CLNJ is nonprofit, nonpartisan civic organization and does not endorse political candidates. CLNJ works with all government officials who support consumer protection. Website: consumer-sleaguenj.org

Crawford Crews American Legion Post #251

Crawford Crews American Legion Post #251 was founded in 1934 and is located at its current location since 1934. The Crawford Crews American Legion Post is the oldest African-American Legion post in the country. Its members, most of whom served in World War II, fought in the 369th Infantry Regiment, known as the "Hellfighters." Over the years, the Post has been involved in many projects and programs including speaking in local schools, supporting Million Man Montclair's mischief night/halloween patrols, scholarship programs, and participation in Montclair's civic observances and parades. 210 Bloomfield Avenue, 973-746-6055

Friends of Anderson Park

The mission of this all-volunteer conservancy is to carry out the thoughtful stewardship of Anderson Park and to foster its historic, natural, cultural, environmental and educational qualities. Our primary mission is to protect the spirit and integrity of the park's nationally significant Olmsted-designed landscape and to rehabilitate and maintain its pastoral ambiance. We are an Essex County park, but financially independent of the county, reliant on donations and small grants to do our work. Volunteers are welcome to participate in a range of tasks, including planting, weeding, mulching, cleanups, community service, and special projects. Side Door

Side Door was created in the spring of 2004 to provide a safe, welcoming, and inclusive space for Montclair's middle school students on Fridays after school. A program of Union Congregational Church, it offers town youth a free, safe and supervised alternative to being home alone or congregating unsupervised in area streets, businesses and parks.

After school on most Fridays, middle schoolers find an inclusive, supportive and welcoming space that is just for them and where they know they are safe. Spending time with friends old and new, racing from one age-appropriate activity to the next, they are mentored by high school and college students and overseen by adult volunteers.

Volunteers (adults and older students) are often needed and donations gratefully accepted. For more information, email sidedoor@unioncong.org, or visit sidedoormontclair.org.

Family Promise of Essex County (FPE)

Family Promise of Essex County’s mission is to help homeless and at-risk families achieve self-sufficiency by providing shelter, social services, and housing assistance through a community-based approach. FPE envisions a community in which every family has a home and the chance to build a better future. Our shelter system provides families with shelter, meals, and ongoing case management and related social services during the day. FPE recognizes that family homelessness and poverty are complex issues that require comprehensive, innovative solutions. Solving homelessness is not just about housing. Our holistic approach to the crisis of family homelessness includes three areas of focus: emergency shelter, prevention, diversion and stabilization.

Montclair Ambulance Unit

Montclair Ambulance Unit is Montclair's 9-1-1 emergency response service, employing approx. 35 highly trained EMTs (emergency medical technicians) since 1953. Responding to over 3200 calls per year, the Unit is able to respond because of generous donor contributions, health insurance reimbursements, and annual fundraising appeals and events.

With health costs on the rise and high deductible health plans providing virtually zero reimbursement to MAU, operations continue through donations to support ambulatory supplies and vehicle maintenance, and recruitment and employment of career EMT staff. EMTs complete 190 hours for certification and are required to complete continuing education to stay current with the latest life-saving skills.

Montclair Ambulance has a 12-member governing Board. Find out more at www.montclairems.org or by emailing director@montclairems.org. 95 Walnut St., Diane Esty, Executive Director, 973-803-3194
